About Product/Me

Hailing from a background entrenched in science, it is my goal to share my love for science with as many people as possible in fun-filled ways. I have had a wealth of experience organising events in high school as both the chairman and as an Exco member as well as in the army.

- ✓ Gets things done
- ✓ Great fun to be around
- ✓ Believes strongly in teamwork and feedback

Proposals

1. SciSoc Family: "Blood is thicker than water" right? The more inclusive the community, the higher the participation rate → More FUN
2. PubQuiz: Wasn't this year's one fantastic??
3. In-person Events: Dinners? Garden parties?
4. Merch!Merch!Merch! 'nuff said
