2. Sign in to your Google account if you have not already. You should end up at your Google Calendar.
3. A dialogue box will appear, as below. Click add, and the calendar will be added to your Google Calendar. Now skip to step 6!
If you don't see this, don't worry! Read on.

4. Make sure you're in the Desktop version (particularly if you're on mobile). Find the 'Other calendars' section on the left-hand side (use above screenshot for reference) and press the '+' symbol.
5. From here, click 'Subscribe to calendar' and enter camscisoc@gmail.com when prompted. You should now have a calendar called 'Cambridge SciSoc - Event Schedule' under 'Other calendars' - you are now subscribed to our Google Calendar!

To receive instant updates to our events schedule, make sure your Google account is added to your smartphone, and Calendar syncing is turned on. You should now see SciSoc events on your own smartphone's calendar app!
